Election/Restrictions

Claim 1 is generic and allowable. Accordingly, the restriction requirement as to the encompassed species is hereby withdrawn and claims 5-7, 9, 10, 15 and 16, directed to the non-elected species of locks and anchors, are no longer withdrawn from consideration since all of the claims to this species depend from or otherwise include each of the limitations of an allowed generic claim.

In view of the above noted withdrawal of the restriction requirement as to the linked species, applicant(s) are advised that if any claim(s) depending from or including all the limitations of the allowable generic linking claim(s) be presented in a continuation or divisional application, such claims may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application. Once a restriction requirement is withdrawn, the provisions of 35 U.S.C. 121 are no longer applicable. See In re Ziegler, 44 F.2d 1211, 1215, 170 USPQ 129, 131-32 (CCPA 1971). See also MPEP § 804.01.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: with respect to claim 20, the prior art teaches a catheter with an elongate flexible body with a longitudinal axis extending between proximal and distal ends, a first side having a fixed axial length and an opposing second side having an adjustable length by way of slots, and a first forming element extending through the body to a distal point of attachment to the body, wherein manipulation of the first forming element deflects at least a first portion of the body away from the longitudinal axis. The prior art does not teach, suggest or imply the limitation of a detachable coupling on a proximal portion of the body for the purpose of attaching the body to a deployment catheter, and there would be no motivation to include the coupling to the catheter body.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
